"Souls of our Shoes" Exhibition
St Mary's Episcopal Cathedral in Edinburgh

May 2013

Comments received from visitors:

*I have shoes like these too, including the ones I walked away in.
Prayers with all who wore or have worn such shoes.*

Very very powerful.

Brought tears to my eyes - so emotional. All these personal testaments to abuse. Pauline from Tyne & Wear.

Thank you honestly. May I never know domestic abuse, may I always pray for others. These shoes made me cry.

Thank you.

To think over - to make a break and have a look to the "shoes" - Aughie, Australia.

This exhibition is the most humbling thing I have seen for a long time. Somehow in the midst of suffering and pain we are still reminded God given glimpses of God's Glory.

A very thought provoking Exhibition. The saying "Walk a mile in my shoes" has serious meaning. From WQ of Liverpool.

Beautiful and to the point - Many suffer in silence and here's me thinking I have troubles! From VT.

A reminder that Domestic Abuse is still with us - in every walk of life.

I came years ago to see my mother's shoes, both visits have been very thought provoking and sobering.
